MINNEAPOLIS BALL CLUB TO TRAIN AT BAY ST. LOUIS

The efforts of the Chamber of Commerce to have one of the Major League Baseball clubs to train in Bay St. Louis has been rewarded. Henry "Zeke" Bonura, manager of the Minneapolis Team, announced on Tuesday that he had selected Bay St. Louis as the training site for his team. He was given the right to select the site for his training camp by Mike Kelly, President of the Club, and of course "Zeke" who has never forgotten the many happy days that he spent at St. Stanislaus, and what the training he received at the institution has meant to him, selected Bay St. Louis.

Plans have been formulated to put the playing field at St. Stanislaus in readiness. Showers and locker rooms will be constructed, and a grandstand built.

Pitchers and catchers will report at the Bay March 11 and the other players four days later. Zeke expects to bring some 76 Millers down South but will cut the squad to about 50, he said.

His present exhibition schedule calls for games with the Pelicans and with Rochester, Birmingham and Columbus, which clubs will train at nearby Biloxi, and with Mobile and Pensacola.

Manager Bonura looks for a good season. The Millers finished sixth in the A. A. last year and he says he has some likely looking newcomers, including 11 New Orleans boys.

"It's a good chance for local boys," Zeke pointed out. "I will give all ex-GIs plenty of chance to make good and we have six farm teams players can be sent to."

Zeke, who played eight years in the Majors five with the White Sox, will play first base and outfielder—outfielder because he says he has some good-looking first-sackers coming and he wants to try them out thoroughly. Bonura was in the Army four and a half years and was overseas three years. He is 36 years old.

The team will stay at Hotel Reed. Mr. Howard LeTissier owner of Hotel Reed and Brother Casimir, president of St. Stanislaus have been most active in securing the approval of Bay St. Louis as a training site for the Minneapolis team.

The selection of Bay St. Louis brings most forcibly to our minds what the cooperation of a few men who have the interest of Bay St. Louis and the County uppermost in their hearts can accomplish if they set out to do it.

This will mean much to Bay St. Louis. Consider the advertisement that money could not pay for. Sport pages are read more than any other type of news.

We offer our congratulations to the Chamber of Commerce.

Enlistment-in-Grade Privilege Ends Jan. 31

Members of the Enlisted Reserve Corps on inactive status may now enlist in the Regular Army and hold their present grade, but this enlistment privilege will end January 31, it was revealed today in an announcement from ASF District Seven Headquarters in Jackson which is in charge of administration of all army recruiting stations in Mississippi.

After January 31, it was stated, Enlisted Reserve Corpsmen who join the Regular Army will be enlisted in the grade of private.

This news is especially important to those non-commissioned enlisted reservists who allowed their 20-day limit on reenlisting in grade to elapse, following their discharge, and now desire to join the Regular Army and hold their former grades.

This new regulation makes it possible for members of the Enlisted Reserve Corps to enlist in the Regular Army in grade, regardless of how long it has been since they were released from active duty, as long as such enlistment is accomplished on or before the 31st of this month.

DISCHARGED

Tax Collections

In the calendar year of 1945 the Tax Commission collected for the state $34,070,649.89, as compared with $33,651,451.57 for the year 1944. As a source of revenue for the state, the sales tax was well out in front with collections for 1945 of $15,229,904.14, as compared with $13,740,266.14 in 1944. The next largest item was the income tax which accounted for $8,460,982.97 in 1945, as compared with $11,174,825.03 in 1944. The falling off in 1945 of income tax collection, was due to a reduction in the rate as the volume of business in 1945, as indicated by the sales tax, was well above that of 1944. The tax collected on beer and wine in 1945 was $2,314,359.00 as compared with $1,802,564.15 in 1944. Tax collected on crude oil in 1945 was $1,196,953.15. The first full year the severance tax on oil has been collected was 1945. When the lawmakers opened the 1946 session on Tuesday of this week they found approximately 25 million dollars in the general fund of the treasury. Many demands will be made upon this "surplus" and just how it will be spent remains to be seen.

A wedding of interest that took place over the week end was that of Mr. Albert Biehl, Jr. and Miss Myra Gray of Jackson, Tennessee. The young couple were quietly married at the bride's home and left immediately for Bay St. Louis. They arrived here Tuesday and it is their intention to make their home here.

A JOB WELL DONE

HANCOCK County exceeded its quota of "E" Bonds in the Victory Loan Drive, with a total of $80,072.98. It was a close shave. We only made the mark by $72.98. Nevertheless the record of the County in all drives in the war effort stood the final test. It is a record that the people of the County can speak of with pride. In all of the many drives that have been held Hancock County has always exceeded its quota.

In the war bond drives, the over all quota for all types of bonds in many instances far exceeded the quotas assigned the County. It was hard in many instances to meet the "E" Bond quota. Many individuals investing in War Bonds were using savings of a life time, that had been set aside to be invested to produce sufficient revenue for living expenses. These people could not invest in "E" Bonds. It was necessary for them to purchase other types of bonds. Bonds that would bring in some revenue at stated periods.

It was quite interesting to note the interest and enthusiasm that each bond drive developed. The fighting spirit of our people came to the front. A determination to succeed. When the drives seemed to lag and appeared stymied, the harder the committees worked. It was this spirit that predominated each war effort drive, and for this reason we are today able to say that the people of Hancock County rendered a splendid service to their Country and to their boys and girls who were in the different branches of the service.

Those who served on the committees assigned to the many drives that were held throughout the war deserve much credit for the job that they have done. We know that in instances, discourtesies were cast at them by individuals who were probably a bit thoughtless of the work these men and women were performing. Of the time and labor that they were putting into the war effort. It was a job that had to be done. It was necessary to finance a great war. It was necessary to secure money for this task, as it was to have men to fight. The men and women who served so ably have performed a great service to their Country.

Too, we must not forget the men and women of Hancock County who invested their money in war bonds and who so generously gave in the other drives held in the County. It was the spirit that they exemplified that in the finals contributed to the success of each drive. They bought in many instances until it hurt, and when it appeared that the quota would not be met, if they were called on again they came to the front with a bit more.

The satisfaction of feeling that we have performed our duty, and were afforded an opportunity to aid our Country in the time of its greatest need, is compensation for which we should all feel grateful for a job well done.

BONURA GOING BACK TO OLD STAMPING GROUNDS

ZEKE BONURA is tackling his new job as manager of the Minneapolis club of the American Association with much enthusiasm. First of all he's happy he is going back to his old stamping grounds—Bay St. Louis—as a "big shot." It was at Stanislaus college where Zeke got his nickname. It was there that he blossomed out as an athlete under the tutelage of Forster Commager who made a national junior AAU javelin champion out of him. Zeke won that title on the Pacific Coast.

As happy as a kid with a new toy Zeke came up to the office yesterday and said:

"I am officially announcing that the Minneapolis club will train at Bay St. Louis. The people over there will build a ball field, a grandstand with showers for the players. It will be located on the same spot where I started my baseball career and I'll supervise the construction. Our headquarters will be at the Reed Hotel. We'll have something like 76 players at the opening of training March 11 and before we start to cut down, we'll have to find room at some other hotel for some of the players."

Zeke is also happy because he has a stack of letters from many GIs he came in contact with during his stay at Camp Shelby where he built a field and ran the club. Others have come from boys he helped while overseas. It will be recalled that General Dwight Eisenhower decorated Bonura for his fine work abroad building baseball fields and promoting sports which helped the morale of the fighting men.

"We'll have other clubs in our farm system and many of the boys will be sent out for more seasoning."

Zeke plans to play first base while managing the Minneapolis team. He says he has already started to get in shape to take up where he left off. Just before Zeke was taken into the service he was having such a great season the Yankees wanted him. But Uncle Sam got him first. He believes the Gulf Coast is a fine place to get a ball club in shape, especially this year when exhibition games can be arranged with New Orleans, Birmingham and Mobile of the Southern Association; Columbus of the American Association and Rochester of the International League which will train at Keesler Field along with the Barons. He also plans to play in Pensacola.

Zeke's many friends in New Orleans are pulling for the big fellow to make good in his first attempt to manage a ball club in fast company.

STRICTLY NONPARTISAN

ANNOUNCEMENT by Sugar Bowl headquarters that 18 Sugar Bowlers would make the trip to Stillwater, Okla., next week to present the championship Sugar Bowl to Coach Lookabaugh and the Oklahoma Aggies is contradiction enough that the Sugar Bowlers, in majority were pulling for St. Mary's to win the game.

The Sugar Bowl always has been nonpartisan, as the record of every year will prove. Tennessee was a Southeastern Conference team—the home team in the Sugar Bowl—and yet a large delegation went to Boston to present the championship bowl to Boston college.

In spite of the fact that American boys fought—and died—beside each other without ever a thought of religious learnings, the great war, unhappy to say, has not completely eliminated the un-American ugliness which crops into clean high school and collegiate sports on the puny and unfair ripple of religious learning.

One of the first examples of broad-mindedness that ever took place in this section was the original invitation and return trip made by the Tulsa team to St. Stanislaus college and Bay St. Louis to train for the Sugar Bowl game. Boys who followed the Catholic religion were few and far between on those Tulsa teams, but they noticed no difference whatsoever in the treatment they got at St. Stanislaus and Bay St. Louis than in treatment they ever got anywhere. That is, no difference excepting they must have thought the Bay St. Louis people and the St. Stanislaus brothers did well by them or they never would have jumped at the chance of going back.

"IS THIS A SCRAP OF PAPER"?

The CIO—United Steel Workers Union said that its strike does not violate its contracts with steel companies. Here is the "no strike" clause taken from a typical contract.

Let the words speak for themselves!

"During the term of this Agreement, neither the Union nor any Employee, individually or collectively, shall cause or take part in any strike, or other interruption or any impeding of production at any plant of the Company covered by this agreement. Any Employee or Employees who violate the provisions of this Section may be discharged from the employ of the company in accordance with the procedure of Section 8 of this Agreement."

This provision, or one similar to it, is contained in each contract between the Union and the various steel companies. These contracts continue by their terms until the autumn of this year.

People who bring the question of religion into clean sports make a bugaboo out of religion. Such movements, as small as they are, should be cried out of existence.

It therefore is pleasing to see Oklahoma A & M is going to get the same all-out recognition from the Sugar Bowl as any other team ever got.—Wm. McG. Keefe, Times-Picayune, Jan. 24, 1946.

Figures on Sawtimber And Cordwood Volume

Area Forest Ranger Russell E. Lott of Pearlinton has announced the completion of a special report by the Mississippi Forestry Commission showing the total sawtimber and cordwood volume, growth and drain trends for the years 1935, 1940, and 1945 in the state. Mr. Lott stated the report revealed that Hancock County had cut a total of 155,755,600 board feet sawtimber volume during the ten year period and that having entered the period in 1935 with a total standing volume of sawtimber estimated at 258,600,000, the report showed that 250,502,718 estimated sawtimber volume remained in the county as of December 31, 1944.

Mr. Lott also stated that the value of the stumpage on the above cut based at $6 per thousand board feet amounted to $934,536.00 and that the manufacturer value at $30 per thousand amounted to $4,672,680.00.

"Some idea of the tremendous importance of forest products in our daily lives may be gained from a study of this report," said Mr. Lott. "When you consider," he continued, "that 55,000 persons are employed in the woods and wood using plants in Mississippi and compute the many days required to process the volume of forest products which are turned out in this county you will recognize just how important these woods are to us and how necessary it is that we do something to promote better timber management, forestry education, and forest fire control."

Cordwood drain in the ten year period in Hancock County totaled 361,296 cords which value on a $6 basis delivered, would total $2,167,776.00.

VICTORY BONDS

Rex I. Brown, who led the state successfully in eight bond drives during World War II, has issued a statement commending and thanking the people of Mississippi for buying victory bonds in the recent drive. It was pointed out that E-Bonds bought by the people of the state registered a total of $19,351,350, which is 114% of the quota asked for by the U. S. Treasury. A letter from the Treasury Department states that state officers and employees in Mississippi bought 155% of the quota set up for them. In the letter to Gov. Bailey it was stated that "this is the largest overpurchase record of any of the campaigns."

A. & G. THEATRE SUNDAY - MONDAY "THE SPANISH MAIN"

Stars Brilliant Dramatic Trio in Thrill-Laden Adventure Film in Technicolor

A spectacular romantic adventure of the seventeenth century Caribbean, ablaze with buccaners and wily Spaniards and the clash of swords and deeds of deering-do, comes to the screen in "The Spanish Main," a Frank Borzage production in Technicolor for RKO Radio.

Paul Henreid as a Dutch sea-captain turned pirate to avenge Spanish treachery, Maureen O'Hara as the imperious daughter of the Dons, and Walter Slezak as the arrogant Governor of New Granada have the stellar roles in the picture. Binnie Barnes and John Emery are featured. Laurent Van Horn, brining a cargo of Dutch emigrants to the New World is driven off his course by a storm and wrecked near Cartagena, capital of Spain's new dominions. Don Juan Alvarado, the Governor, brutally sells the survivors into slavery and prepares to hang Van Horn, who escapes, and to avenge his comrades turns to buccanery.

By a clever ruse, Van Horn, or "The Barracuda," as he is now known, captures a lofty galleon bearing Don Juan's intended bride, the haughty but beautiful Donna Francisca, to Cartagena. In return for Van Horn's promises to spare the galleon's consort ship, Francisca agrees to marry the pirate, who takes her in triumph back to the buccanier stronghold on Tortuga. There, however, Van Horn's jealous girl friend, Anne Bonny, plots with his treacherous lieutenant, Da Bilar, and with other pirate captains, to return Francisca to Cartagena, lest the aroused Spaniards wipe out the pirate's island retreat. Van Horn sets off in pursuit of his wife, and learns that Don Juan has double-crossed Anne and her crew and is preparing to hang them all even though they have brought Francisca back to him.

How the resourceful Barracuda outwits the Governor and gets away with his bride forms the stirring and suspenseful climax of the colorful "The Spanish Main." Binnie Barnes plays the swashbuckling Anne Bonny, and John Emery that of Henry's disloyal aide with Barton MacLane, J. M. Kerrigan, Fritz Leiber, Nancy Gates, Jack LaRue, Mike Mazurki, and Antonio Moreno in important roles.

The thrilling sea-fight between the galleon and the pirate vessel, the battle in the Cartagena prison between the buccaners and the Spanish soldiery. Henreid's duel with MacLane episodes enhance the striking romance of the story, while magnificent settings and costumes set a new standard in color films.

ORTTE THEATRE SUNDAY - MONDAY "SHE WENT TO THE RACES"

M-G-M's Racy Comedy Romance with James Craig, Frances Gifford and an All-Star Cast

The comic possibilities of a group of college professors concocting a system to beat the ponies by scientific deduction are amusingly realized in "She Went to the Races," new M-G-M picture.

When venerable Professor Pecke (Edmund Gwenn) faces the loss of his experimental laboratory at a research institute, the pretty, young scientist, Ann Wotters (Frances Gifford), joins with three other professors in a scheme to raise the money to keep the laboratory going. With the aid of charts, racing forms and even test tubes, they establish themselves at the Santa Anita race track, where they encounter Steve Canfield (James Craig), owner of the racing favorite.

The deductions of the professors prove reliable enough, but they fail to take into account the romantic persuasions of their feminine colleague, and Ann gets them all into a melange of suspense and intrigue before the final race brings Steve's horse home in a championship finish and proves a solution to both Dr. Pecke's financial problems and Ann's romantic quandary.

Craig's work as the young sportsman is jaunty, light-hearted and bantering while Miss Gifford goes to the top of the class of light comedienne with a forthright, fresh role as the lady scientist who ultimately finds love more satisfying than test tubes.

Ava Gardner, in the role of a designing ex-Countess, is excellently cast and does justice to some of the film's funniest lines.

The racing scenes are given color and authenticity under the astute direction of Willis Goldbeck, and Lawrence Hazard's screen play is both compact and witty.

★ EDUCATION ★ TRAVEL ★ GOOD PAY

Every day more and more Mississippi men are enlisting and reenlisting in the Army. Some—like the Miller twins, Jackson—to get the benefits of world travel and later go on to college under the GI Bill. Others—like Sgt. Tommie Whittington, McComb, who picked China—want to see foreign lands and far places. Still others—like Sgts. Rolfe Flake, Philadelphia; Floyd Blackwell, Biloxi; Hugh Bryant, Vicksburg; and PFC Jack Myers, Hattiesburg—have reenlisted because of the fast advancement, good pay and security of an Army career. In any case, the Army opens up a world of opportunity.

Men now in the Army who reenlist before January 31, retain present rates. Honorably discharged men get credit within 20 days after discharge in rate held, if they reenlist before January 31. For details, see—

COUNTY HAS HUGE JOB AHEAD ON HOME REPAIR

More than $272,000 is expected to be spent during the next five years by Hancock County home owners on remodeling and repair work.

The year 1946 promises to inaugurate one of the greatest eras in American history for home repairs and modernization, according to estimates released by the Title Council of America. "Few developments will constitute more to employment and general prosperity in any community," according to R. E. Jordan, chairman of the Council's Residential Construction Committee. Because of lack of materials and manpower during the war, majority of the county's 3,620 dwelling units are in need of some kind of repair or remodeling work. Kitchen improvements and modernization of bathrooms, installation of tiled showers and in some homes addition of a second bath top the nation's list of most wanted major improvements, Jordan said.

Outside paint jobs are needed on more than 50 per cent of homes, and addition of rooms and construction of porches also rank high in remodeling plans, according to the report. New roofing and heating plants are required by many dwellings.

Home owners in Mississippi will spend an estimated $42,075,000 and those of the nation more than $550,000,000 for major repairs alone in the next five years, according to Jordan. Ample funds, at low interest charges, are available for such work through commercial banks, savings and loan associations, credit unions and mutual savings banks, he pointed out.

A Letter to the President of the United States

January 18, 1946

Hon. Harry S. Truman
President of the United States
The White House
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. President:

Your proposal to me in Washington last evening that the wage demand of the United Steelworkers of America-CIO be settled on the basis of a wage increase of 18 1/2 cents an hour, retroactive to January 1, 1946, cannot, I regret to say, be accepted by the United States Steel Corporation for the reason set forth below.

As you must be aware, your proposal is almost equivalent to granting in full the Union's revised demand of a wage increase of 19 1/2 cents an hour, which was advanced by Philip Murray, the President of the Union, at our collective bargaining conference with the Union in New York a week ago today. In our opinion, there is no just basis from any point of view for a wage increase to our steel workers of the large size you have proposed, which, if put into effect, is certain to result in great financial harm not only to this Corporation but also to users of steel in general.

As I have tried to make clear to you and other Government officials during our conferences in Washington over the past few days, there is a limit in the extent to which the Union wage demands can be met by us. We reached that limit when we raised our offer to the Union last Friday from a wage increase of 12 1/2 cents an hour to one of 15 cents an hour. This would constitute the highest single wage increase ever made by our steel-making subsidiaries. Our offer of 15¢ cents was equivalent to meeting the 60% of the Union's original excessive demand of a $2 a day general wage increase. Our offer met 75% of the Union's final proposal of a wage increase of 19 1/2 cents an hour. A wage increase of 15 cents an hour, such as we offered, would increase the direct labor costs of our manufacturing subsidiaries by approximately $60,000,000 a year. That is a most substantial sum, and does not take into account the higher cost we shall have to pay for purchased goods and services, when large wage increases generally become effective throughout American industry, as is inevitable after a substantial increase in steel wages.

As you know, collective bargaining negotiations with the Union broke down at the White House yesterday afternoon, because Mr. Murray then refused to budge from his position that a country-wide steel strike must take place, unless steel workers are granted a general wage increase of 19 1/2 cents an hour. Our offer of a wage increase of 15 cents an hour was again rejected by the Union.

The Union threatened to go ahead with its program for a national steel strike at midnight next Sunday, although such a strike will be a clear violation of the no-strike provision contained in our labor contracts with the Union, which continue by their terms until October 15, 1946.

From the outset, we have recognized how injurious a steel strike will be to reconstruction and to the economy of this whole country. Most industries are dependent upon a supply of steel for their continued operations. We have done everything reasonably within our power to avert such a strike. If a strike occurs, the responsibility rests with the Union.

When the Government at the eleventh hour informed us about a week ago of its willingness to sanction an increase in steel ceiling prices, we at once resumed collective bargaining negotiations with the Union. Such price action by the Government was a recognition by it of the right of the steel industry to receive price relief because of past heavy increases in costs, something which the steel industry for many months has unsuccessfully sought to establish with OPA.

I should like again to point out some pertinent facts relative to the wages of our steel workers.

Since January, 1941, the average straight-time hourly pay, without overtime, of our steel workers has increased more than the 33% increase in the cost of living during that period, recently computed by Government authorities. Steel workers' wages have kept pace with increased living costs. Such average straight-time pay in our steel-producing subsidiaries was $1.14 an hour in each of the months of September, October and November 1945, excluding any overtime premium and any amount for correction of possible wage inequities. An increase of 15 cents, in accordance with our offer, would raise such average straight-time pay to $1.29 an hour, placing such pay among the highest today in all American industry.

Under our offer of a 15 cent increase, the average weekly take-home pay of our steel workers for a forty-hour week would amount to $51.60, assuming that no overtime is involved. This figure is only $4.54 less than the actual average weekly earnings of these employees, including overtime, in the last full war year of 1944, when the average work week was 46.1 hours. The difference is really less, because we will undoubtedly continue to have overtime in the future, just as we have at the present time. In November, 1945, overtime premiums to our steel workers aggregated more than $1,300,000. Such reduction of $4.54 in weekly take-home pay is the natural consequence of a shorter work week of forty hours, and therefore one of lower production.

Much as we desire to avoid a steel strike, we cannot overlook the effect both on this Corporation and on our customers and American business in general, of the 18 1/2 cent an hour wage increase, which you have proposed. Such a wage increase must result in higher prices for steel than have previously been proposed to us by the Government. Great financial harm would soon follow for all users of steel who would be obliged to pay higher prices for their steel, higher wages to their employees, and still have the prices for their own products subject to OPA control. Such a high and unjustified wage scale might well spell financial disaster for many of the smaller steel companies and for a large number of steel fabricators and processors. The nation needs the output of these companies. Increased wages and increased prices which force companies out of business can only result in irreparable damage to the American people.

In our judgment, it is distinctly in the public interest to take into account the injurious effect upon American industry of an unjustified wage increase in the steel industry.

After a full and careful consideration of your proposal, we have reached the conclusion above stated.

Respectfully yours,

Benjamin F. Fairless,
President, United States Steel Corporation
